

Jeremy Wolf Bio-

Jeremy Wolf has been active in the Southeast Music scene for the past 20 years, after moving here from Ohio in 1993. He holds a BA in music from the College of Charleston, where he studied Composition with Dr. David Maves and Bass with Lee Burroughs and Eric Gronfor. Upon graduating Jeremy became one of Charleston's premier freelance musicians, performing locally with The Charleston Jazz Orchestra, Robert Lewis, Quentin Baxter, Lee Barbour, Charlton Singleton, Ron Wiltrout, Asa Holgate, and many others. He has also had the pleasure of performing with national talent the likes of Darius Rucker, Wycliffe Gordon, Diane Schuur, Greg Abate, Peter Graves, Vinnie Falcone and Rebecca Paris. Jeremy Released his first album "Understanding" as a leader in August of 2014. His second album "The Wheel" was released in Fall of 2020. Both albums are available on iTunes, Cdbaby and Google Play.